Byron Lamme and E. E. Kennedy have been drawn from this township to serve on the petit jury in the October term of circuit court.

Miss Hazel Wilson of Laclede was awarded first prizes for best dress and best exhibit of sewing by one girl at the Old Settlers Reunion at Linneus last week.

The ladies of the P. E. O. announce that their annual Hallowe'en carnival will be held again this year at the Groes garage building on Tuesday evening, October 31.

Jack Frost will be making you a visit within a short time. Be prepared to make his visit comfortable with a new heater from The Home Store in your home. Big line now being shown. Call and see them.

H. L. Cady has moved his family here from Browning, occupying the Sisson residence in the south part of town. Mr. Cady is employed in the railroad shops at Brookfield.

Rev. Underwood will fill his regular appointments here next Sunday at the Christian church, preaching morning and evening. All friends of the church cordially invited.

Smith, the baker, was down from Purdin Friday and bought several barrels of flour at the Farmers Exchange. He says he uses nothing but the best flour and is willing to go to extra expense and trouble to get what he knows to be good.

John C. Brown and family who have spent the summer at their home here, left Tuesday for Princeton where Mrs. Brown and the children will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Lomax, while Mr. Brown is on a business trip through the south.

Loomis-Brown

Mr. Ralph Loomis of Meadville and Miss Nellie G. Brown of Triplett were married at Bucklin on Thursday evening of last week at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. D. Carter, by the Rev. Archie Alexander, pastor of the Christian church at Marceline.

The couple left immediately for Oberlin, Ohio, where they will reside while the groom completes his theological course.

The bride is an accomplished and capable young woman, being a graduate of the University of Missouri, 1921, from the school of education. She has been a teacher in the Chariton county schools the last few years, last year having been superintendent of the Rothville schools.

The groom is the youngest son of Capt. and Mrs. A. L. Loomis of northwest of Laclede, graduate of College of Agriculture, M. S. U., 1913, taking his master's degree in 1921. He taught agriculture in Bird Island, Minn., high school, did extension work in agriculture in Minnesota and Missouri, was called to the colors in September 1917, and served twenty months in uniform. He is interested in Rural Church work, having been in that work in North Dakota the past summer.

They have the best wishes of a host of friends in their voyage thru life.

Here From Nebraska

Mark A. Bryant and his friend, C. Halliday, of Auburn, Nebr., traveling in a new Dodge roadster, drove into Laclede Monday evening for a visit with relatives and friends. Mark is train dispatcher at Auburn, having taken his first lesson in railroading here back in the days of Norm Wanamaker and Herb Stone, who have long since passed on, and is now on his annual vacation. His old time friends are glad to see him. Mr. Halliday is an express messenger out of Auburn. They found good roads all through Nebraska but bad roads from St. Joseph to Laclede, on account of the recent heavy rain.

Coal! Coal! Coal!

Parties wanting the North Missouri and Iowa coal will do well to get coal from the car we are unloading today. Price $7.50 at the car.

Those desiring the best Illinois "Old Ben" coal will have an opportunity to lay in a supply in the near future. We cannot give exact date of arrival of cars. The price on Old Ben will be $9.50 at the car. You know what Old Ben means—none better.

There is little question but what there will be trouble at times this winter to get coal just when we want it on account of car shortage. We urge you to take coal promptly when we have it, thereby supplying your needs at times if there be such that we haven't it; also helping us to release cars promptly.

Laclede Farmers Exchange.

Government Farm Loans

We are local representatives for the Joint Stock Land Bank and are now prepared to furnish you 33 year loans at 6% without any commission. Larger loans and no red tape. Write us for information. R. J. Beauchamp & Son, Brookfield, Missouri.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. C. F. Sayles next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Ada McMillen of Linneus, county president, will be at the meeting, and the annual election of officers will be held. If you are not a member of the Union but are interested in the work, your presence at this meeting will be appreciated.

The derailment of three cars in a west bound freight train at an early hour Tuesday morning on the curve trestle west of Locust creek, delayed traffic several hours. The wrecker dumped two of the cars into the ditch and the other one was placed on the rails and sent on. Passenger trains 17 and 55 were held here until the track was cleared at 7:00 o'clock.

P. F. Weaver, who has been in the barber business here for the past twenty years, sold his shop Tuesday to Mack Malloy and Russell Nichols, who have been employed in the shop for some time. These are fine young men, good barbers and will no doubt succeed. Mr. Weaver will devote his time to the automobile business which he has been working as a sideline for several years.

The members of the 1922 graduating class of the Forker high school are all either in college or teaching. Florence Frakes is attending Missouri Wesleyan at Cameron; May Lomax, Beatrice Lomax, Frances Frakes and Bernadine Fay are at the state teachers college at Kirksville; Jerome Frakes is attending the state university; Thenis Welsh is teaching the Johnson school south of Brookfield; Ruby Turner is teaching the Pleasant Grove school southeast of Laclede, and Kathleen Cross is teaching the Plum Grove school.

The Blade received a letter yesterday from Mrs. Erma Pease of Tingley, Iowa, in which she inclosed a check to renew her subscription and wrote: "We have lived here a year now and are well pleased with our location. Taxes are out of sight here! A man sold two car loads of cattle to pay his taxes and then lacked fifty cents or had fifty cents left over, I have forgotten which. He has 400 acres. We've had a splendid season and farmers' prospects are brighter than for several seasons past. Corn is a bumper crop this year. Mr. Pease is very much improved in health and feeling good most of the time. The children are both in school. Wm. is in first year high school and Maxine in the 2nd grade. I am back at my old work, teaching, so you see we are a busy family. Give our regards and best wishes to all friends, including yourself and wife."

Northern Red Globe onions 4c the pound. Fine quality if you want to put some away for winter. The Home Store.

Attorney Paul VanOsdol of Brookfield, republican nominee for circuit judge, was here Monday meeting the voters. Mr. Van Osdol is a good lawyer, well qualified for the bench and an ex-service man who is worthy of your vote.

Rev. E. R. Kelley is still confined to his home and not able to attend the annual conference being held at Braymer this week. He was able to send in a good report, however, showing all obligations of the local M. E. church fully met.

Daily Argus: Mrs. H. C. Pratt and son, Herbert, will leave Thursday morning for San Pedro, California, to visit the sister, Mrs. C. W. Heryford. The husband will go later and be joined by the family at Long Beach, where they will reside.

The P. E. O's met in regular session with Mrs. Lee Hamilton Wednesday afternoon. As this was the first meeting after the summer vacation the session was devoted to business. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Edith Hamilton.

Manager Patterson had a load of hogs on the St. Joseph market yesterday for L. W. Lomax, W. H. Smith, Henry Culbertson, C. E. Goosey, Fred Hanson, C. V. Jennings, W. O. Z. Endicott, V. E. Hogsett, A. P. Welsh, W. S. Savage, Claude Gable and G. W. Estes.

J. L. Sayre had a good day for his sale Monday, there was a large attendance and everything sold well. Mr. Sayre left Wednesday for his new home at Kirksville where he will conduct the rooming house he traded his farm for, and invites his Laclede friends to call on him when they come to Kirksville.

A. W. Payne, republican nominee for circuit clerk, was in Laclede yesterday in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Payne is a live wire and if any voter escapes meeting him between now and the election it will not be the candidate's fault. He is well qualified for the place and there will be no mistake made in electing him.
